ABOUT NSDT, THE CHARITY THAT MANAGES THE BRASSHOUSE CAFÉ

“Our mission is to be widely recognised as a leading community anchor organisation providing services for our community. Locally owned with active involvement from the community, the Trust will continue to make a real and positive contribution to the lives of people in North Smethwick. We want to be seen as an essential partner for agencies operating in North Smethwick and the wider area. The Trust will be financially independent with income streams derived from its own assets and social enterprises which will be reinvested to improve community services, strengthen the local economy and local enterprise.”

At the Brasshouse Cafe we are all about good food that doesn't cost the earth. Come down on a Monday to Friday and you will find us serving up tasty, affordable food made from locally sourced ingredients. Our experienced chef will be supporting trainees and volunteers to develop the skills and confidence needed to get jobs.

Our locally sourced food helps to support the local economy. Any profits made from the Brasshouse Cafe are put back into the work we do in the local community as we are committed to supporting positive community change.

All of this means that, while you're enjoying our great food, you know you are part of something special.
